

LMHC/LICSW Therapist or Associate

CPF-Colonial Clinic, a member of the Recovery Ways Family of Programs, is a thriving program in the heart of Spokane. We offer closed group intensive outpatient services; a partial hospitalization program and outpatient mental health and substance use disorder treatment. The LMHC/LICSW/Associate counselor works under the direction of the Treatment Director and provides direct Mental Health services as needed for client care, including evaluations, 1x1 sessions and group facilitation. In addition, the LMHC/LICSW may provide clinical supervision for associate and intern therapist staff as needed.

A relocation allowance is also provided for candidates who are relocating.

The successful candidate will possess the following:

- Considerable knowledge and experience in behavioral health methods, practices, procedures and trends, including both mental health and Substance Use services.
- Experience working with SUD populations.
- Knowledge of the cultural, social, and economic background of the diverse populations served and the impact of cultural values and beliefs in healthcare provision.
- Ability to provide for the clinical advice, guidance, and support to professional staff in areas of specialty.
- Demonstrated skills in written and verbal communication. Ability to provide written and oral presentations.
- Ability to establish rapport and gain the confidence of a diverse population of clients.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a team.

Other Requirements:

- Graduation from a college or university with a Master's degree in social work, psychology, counseling or other related human service field equivalent is required.
- Licensed in Washington State as a Licensed Mental Health Professional, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist or Licensed Clinical Social Worker. (An Associate's license will be considered - but supervision will most likely be remote.)
- Colonial Clinic is currently offering 4 weeks of vacation annually to their successful LMHC candidate!
